

SUCCESSFUL MEETING WILL CLOSE TODAY

Monday's Services of the Culppepers Were Largely Attended.

Tabernacle Was Crowded

The Evening the Big Auditorium Was Filled Shortly After 7 O'Clock, and Many Who Arrived Late Compelled to Stand—Last Service Tonight.

The Culppepper meetings seem to be growing in fervor and interest from day to day, and it is to be regretted that tonight will bring the services to an end here, as considerably more than a hundred have already confessed during the two weeks, and many more are under conviction. It was one of the most glorious meetings that Mr. Culppepper held his services about twenty years ago, and a meeting which will be long remembered, and for which the people of Gainesville will long be thankful.

Monday morning the services were held in the First Methodist Church, when the elder Culppepper preached. His sermon was full of logic, and being which he managed to drive the truth and conviction home to many. Notwithstanding that services were held at all other churches, the Methodist church was filled to such an extent that there was not standing room, and many people were turned away.

In the afternoon, at the Tabernacle, Mr. Culppepper preached a wonderful sermon to a large congregation, at which many stood and asked to be prayed for. In the evening his father, Rev. J. B. Culppepper, delivered an eloquent and stirring sermon, the theme of which was "The Significance of the Blood." At this service, as early as a quarter past 7 o'clock, the big Tabernacle, which its tremendous seating capacity, was filled, without a vacant seat, save here and there through the building. A number of young men who arrived late occupied seats on a pile of wood which had been stored in the rear of the building. This meeting was a grand success, and the best evidence that it was convincing, several came forward for prayer, and many signified their intention of joining the various churches of the city.

Monday afternoon the services were held at the Tabernacle, and were well attended. In the evening the Tabernacle was well filled, despite the blinding rain which prevailed. The elder Culppepperspoke on the danger of procrastination, and for nearly an hour held the closest attention of his congregation.

The engagement should have concluded with last night's services, but owing to the inclement weather, the evangelists were induced to remain for one more service, which will be held tonight. At this service the elder Culppepper will deliver his famous temperance lecture, and every Declares Vinol is the Best Cod Liver Preparation.

There has been a good deal of discussion in Gainesville regarding the merits of cod liver oil preparations, and whether or not cod liver oil and emulsions that upset the stomach have any medicinal virtue; therefore, the following letter from M. A. Cassidy, superintendent of schools, Lexington, Ky., will be read with interest:

"I am pleased to state that after having used and tested the different cod liver oil preparations on the market, I find Vinol to be far superior to them all.

"Vinol built up my system, strengthened my nerves and made a new man of me, and I heartily endorse it as the most efficacious and agreeable cod liver oil preparation on the market."

Our local druggist, Mr. W. M. Johnson, when asked his opinion in regard to Vinol, replied: "We have never sold anything in our store better than Vinol to create strength, cure stomach troubles, chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and incipient consumption, or to make growing children robust and give strength and vigor to the aged."

"It is for this reason that we offer to return money in every case where it fails"—W. M. Johnson, Druggist.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Gainesville, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

man, woman and child in Gainesville are earnestly requested to be present. The Culppeppers expect to leave Gainesville tomorrow for Valdosta, Ga., where they have an engagement. Their presence and work has been appreciated here, and the people hope they will come again.

ASKS A STRAIGHT QUESTION.

C. C. Pedrick Wants to Know What Board Public Works Proposes to Do.

Editor Sun: I noticed some discussion in your paper in reference to municipal ownership of electric lighting plant, and I, being and agreeing with W. R. Thomas and yourself along this line, desire to ask the Board of Public Works the following question:

"Do you intend buying or building a lighting plant for the city?"

Now, I have the highest regard for each and every member of your honorable board, and thought a year ago that the city would have been operating its own lighting plant before this time.

There was, as I understood it, bonds voted for the purpose—and a sufficient amount, too, and that the Board of Public Works was elected by the people to do this one thing, along with other things, with this bond money.

In conclusion, I wish to assure each and every member of the Board of Public Works that I entertain the most profound respect and confidence in the body, collectively and individually. I only ask this question because a large majority of our citizens are so deeply interested in this matter of public interest.

Very respectfully,

C. C. PEDRICK.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.

A Meeting of the Board of Trade and Railroad Commissioners Today.

Secretary B. F. Hampton requests The Sun to announce that a joint meeting of the Board of Trade and the Florida Railroad Commission will be held at the court house at 9:30 o'clock this morning, at which a full attendance is desired, not only of the Board of Trade, but the business men and citizens as well.

At this meeting the question of a union depot will be discussed, and it is expected that some definite action will be taken in this matter, which is one of the greatest of importance to Gainesville at this time.

Remember, the meeting will be held at 9:30 o'clock, and a full attendance is requested.

CAN'T STAND THE PRESSURE

Dry Goods, Clothing and Gents' Furnishers Declare With Present Rate They Are Paying For Illumination They Can't Afford to Keep Open.

"There are two or three reasons why we fellows who sell dry goods and clothing and shoes and the like have decided to close up our places of business at 6:30 o'clock every night," remarked a prominent dealer in one of these lines Monday, when he was explaining why it was that his store appeared dark in the evening.

"The first 'kick' we have coming," remarked this dealer, "is the enormous 'gouge' we must stand for light. If we were to remain open after dark with the present rate we are compelled to pay for illumination, we would have to sell on an average a pretty good bill to pay for the lights, and sometimes we don't make it—in fact, in the great majority of cases we don't make it, for the fellow who is intending to buy a pair of shoes, or a hat, wants to look at the goods in the day-light unless he happens to be a fellow who wants a pair of socks or a shirt—because he has forgotten to send his soiled garments to the laundry so long that they have accumulated on him until he has nothing left—and there is really no trade after sunset; in fact, there is not enough to warrant us to keep our places open with light expenses, so we decided to close up at half-past 6 o'clock every night except Saturday until November 1, and save our lighting bill, which is more than we can stand at the present rate."

This will be a fair warning to the young fellow who is after a pair of hose, a shirt, a collar or a handkerchief, to "get busy" before the lights go on.

For Marshal.

I respectfully announce my candidacy for the office of City Marshal at the election on April 9th, 1907. If elected I shall perform the duties of the office without fear or favor.
